School News

FIRST GRADE

The following students had perfect attendance for the six weeks period: Laura May Beltz, Susanne Fagerstrom, Christine Hudert, Charley Johnson, Teresa Norbert, Michael Tavis, Wanda Beltz, Robert Smith.

SECOND GRADE

The second grade has two new pupils. They are Rodger Groves from Huron South Dakota, and Margaret Russell from Kentucky.

Peter Singyke has returned to his former home at Teller after two and one-half months in our Room. Rose Mary Pierce has gone to Unalakleet.

THIRD AND FOURTH GRADES

The fourth grade geography class is now taking a journey through Norway. They have just completed a journey through Switzerland and Holland.

The third grade is studying an interesting unit on the sources of our clothing.

In health class we are learning many interesting facts about good and bad germs.

FOURTH AND FIFTH GRADES

The fourth grade has begun a very interesting study of Norway in their geography class. The fifth grade is studying the Middle Atlantic States which are Pennsylvania, New York and New Jersey.

The fourth grade is studying about the Vikings in their history class.

SIXTH GRADE

This week ends our fifth six weeks' period for the school year. We are anxious to improve our records.

We are looking forward to the coming Fair. We memorized "The Village Blacksmith" by Longfellow. We drew some spring scenes of flowers, pussy willows, chickens, rabbits for Easter.

HIGH SCHOOL

In the good citizenship contest which was held by the English classes I and IV, Bonnie Ann Dunbar from English I has won the first prize of $5.00 for writing the best composition about what citizenship is. Phyllis Roell of English IV won the second prize of $3.00 and Walter McCarthy won the third prize of $2.00. The compositions were judged by the grade teachers who said there were many good ones.

This is again the end of another six weeks and all the classes are having their six weeks exams., and getting ready to get their report cards.

COPENHAGEN, (P)—A bulletin from Amalienborg Castle this morning said the condition of King Christian X is better "but there still is some fatigue." The monarch suffered a heart attack Easter Sunday.
